Acts 16:24-34, 40 (NIV)

When he received these orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone's chains came loose. The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!"

The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his household were baptized. The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole household.

After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house, where they met with the brothers and sisters and encouraged them. Then they left.

Philippians 4:8 (NLT)

And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise.

HOW TO STAY POSITIVE

John 13:12-15 (NLT)

After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, "Do you understand what I was doing? You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and you are right, because that's what I am. And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other's feet. I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you."

P_____ growth – Feedback isn't failure; it's fertilizer for culture.

Proverbs 27:17 (NLT)

As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.

Hebrews 12:11 (NLT)

No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

"Great teams invite critique because they're focused on getting better, not staying comfortable."

– Jon Gordon

2 Tips

- _____: "What is one thing we can do better?"
- _____ for the people who give me honest feedback.

O_____ the culture – Culture is built by design.

Joshua 24:15c (NLT)

"But as for me and my family, we will serve the Lord.

Titus 2:7 (NLT)

And you yourself must be an example to them by doing good works of every kind. Let everything you do reflect the integrity and seriousness of your teaching.

"Culture is not what I preach. It's what I tolerate."

– Jon Gordon

1 Tip

- Don't just _____ the culture – build it, design it, defend it.

S_____ one another – Selfless churches go further and reach more people for the Kingdom of God.

John 13:14-15 (NLT)

And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other's feet. I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you.

Galatians 5:13 (NLT)

For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love.

"The best teams don't just talk about service – they wash feet."

1 Tip

- _____ asking for someone to carry my load and go carry someone else's.

I_____ belief – Lead with hope and carry belief for others when they can't.

Hebrews 10:23-25 (NLT)

Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NLT)

So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

"When others doubt, you be the one who believes!"

1 Tip

- _____ faith over fear.

T_____ honestly – Communicate kindly and clearly to protect culture.

Proverbs 24:26 (NLT)

An honest answer is like a kiss of friendship.

Proverbs 12:22 (TPT)

I _____ in relationships – Connection drives collaboration.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10 (NLT)

Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble.

Job 2:12-13 (NLT)

When they saw Job from a distance, they scarcely recognized him. Wailing loudly, they tore their robes and threw dust into the air over their heads to show their grief. Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and nights. No one said a word to Job, for they saw that his suffering was too great for words.

Acts 2:46-47 (NLT)

They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity—all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

"The best teams know each other. Trust flows from connection."

2 Tips

- Eat _____! Pray Together! Laugh Together!
- _____ is the heart of the Church.

V _____ every role – Honor the unique contributions of each other.

1 Corinthians 12:21-26 (NLT)

The eye can never say to the hand, "I don't need you." The head can't say to the feet, "I don't need you." In fact, some parts of the body that seem weakest and least important are actually the most necessary. And the parts we regard as less honorable are those we clothe with the greatest care. So we carefully protect those parts that should not be seen, while the more honorable parts do not require this special care. So God has put the body together such that extra honor and care are given to those parts that have less dignity. This makes for harmony among the members, so that all the members care for each other. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it, and if one part is honored, all the parts are glad.

"Great churches celebrate the volunteers and the staff.
Because without them there is no church."
